Area residents were among those honored at the third Hometown Hero Awards ceremony hosted by U.S. Rep. Josh Gottheimer, D-5th Dist.

The awards honor North Jersey residents who have made outstanding contributions to the community.

Fifth District Hometown Heroes Awards were presented to community leaders, first responders, veterans, members of the business community, students and seniors to recognize their dedication to improving the lives of their neighbors, families and all Jersey residents.

Sussex and Warren county residents honored included Ted Wilson, of Vernon; Santina Flynn, of Hackettstown; Isobel Costello, of Newton; Jeanette Iurato, of Blairstown; Marie Bilik, of Green; Alfred Carrazzone, of Hardwick; Fred Goerlitz, of Mansfield; and Anita Rodriguez, of Hackettstown.
